Breastfeeding and Feminism International Conference

The Breastfeeding and Feminism International Conference (BFIC) is a two-day event. We offer speakers on breastfeeding issues, including sessions for continuing education credit and CERPS. Our last conference was attended by over 150 US and International combined attendees.

The Breastfeeding and Feminism International Conference is designed to bring together academics, practitioners, policymakers, community support organizations and public health professionals and program planners interested in

- Breastfeeding in the US and globally
- Women’s rights at home and at work
- Reproductive health, rights and justice
- Maternal and child health

Businesses can support the conference by participating in many ways:

- Advertising your business in our conference program book.
- Exhibiting your products and services at our conference exhibition hall.
- Donating items or services needed for the operation of the Conference (e.g., printing and office supplies).
- Making a cash donation to Carolina Global Breastfeeding Institute for this conference.

All donors will be recognized in our Conference Program Book.

Three ways to participate

1. Co-sponsor the reception $200!
   This is an excellent sponsorship opportunity as this is the established meeting place for first time attendees to make contacts and for previous attendees to reaffirm existing contacts. Your name will be displayed at the reception and listed in the program as a co-sponsor.

2. Advertiser Information and Pricing
   Advertising in our Conference Program Book is a fantastic value for your business. We offer our advertisers excellent exposure for a very low cost. All ads will be printed in one color and are due to CGBI by Wednesday, February 24, 2016. Email your digital ad file to m_pringl@uncg.edu.

General Policy

All exhibits must be Code of Marketing compliant. Exhibits should not be obtrusive or detract from the primary purpose of the Breastfeeding and Feminism Conference, which is to develop a supportive voice, based on feminist theory that would help change both policy and practice within the health systems and among health care workers, as well as in society in general.

Endorsement

Acceptance of an exhibit does not constitute an endorsement by Carolina Global Breastfeeding Institute and UNCG Center for Women’s Health, or the Breastfeeding and Feminism Conference. A disclaimer to that effect will be printed in the Conference Program Book.

An organization which promotes a cause, supports either or both sides of a controversial issue, and/or advocates a particular procedure, method, or system related however vaguely, to health must have express, written permission from the Breastfeeding and Feminism Coordinators.

Security:

The exhibitor is solely responsible for his or her own exhibit material and should insure his or her exhibit against loss or damage.

Cancellation

Cancellations must be directed in writing to Center for Women’s Health and Wellness. Refunds, less an administrative fee of $150 or 10% of fees (whichever is greater), will be made at BFIC’s discretion, but no refund will be given for any cancellation made after February 24, 2016. In case of fire, the elements, or any other causes beyond management's control that prevent the holdin of the conference, this contract will not be binding.

Items Not Permitted

Unacceptable exhibit products and materials include: (This list is not all inclusive.)

- Infant formula.
- Baby bottles and nipples except as used in conjunction with breast pumps and breastfeeding aid products. (This includes materials that do not directly advertise bottles, but show bottles, i.e. bottle warmers or cozies.)
- Pacifiers or accessories
- Commercial baby foods Tobacco products and alcoholic beverages
- Foods or beverages of any kind

Sale of All Printed and Recorded Materials

Written and/or recorded materials including, but not limited to, books, pamphlets, magazines, articles, reprints, tapes, CDs, etc, are not to be sold at any exhibit without prior approval from Breastfeeding and Feminism Conference coordinators.

Advance Approval Required for All Exhibit Materials

Exhibitors are required to submit a detailed list of items to be exhibited and/or sold. Samples may be requested at a later date. A copy of all printed materials (e.g., brochures, catalogues, flyers) for each exhibit should be reviewed by the conference Coordinators.

Privilege of Regulation and Refusal

Carolina Global Breastfeeding Institute and UNCG Center for Women's Health and Wellness reserve the right to regulate or prohibit any exhibit and/or materials deemed inappropriate or unacceptable.

Safety Regulation:

Exhibitors must adhere to all municipal, state, and federal laws, rules, and regulations. No combustible decorations may be used at any time: all drapes, table coverings, and other materials must comply with fire department regulations.
